

TRAVEL BY AIR

Dundee Airport provides a fast and frequent service between Dundee and Belfast, Birmingham and London City Airport, with ongoing connections from London to all major European destinations. In addition, delegates can fly in to Edinburgh, Glasgow or Aberdeen International Airports from other UK airports or from transatlantic and European departure points.

The international airports at Aberdeen and Edinburgh are within a 1 hour drive from Dundee, with Glasgow only 1 hour 30 minutes away.

From Aberdeen Airport

Aberdeen airport is 7 miles north-west of the city centre on the A96 near Dyce. You can get a train to Dundee by either:

- Hopping on one of two buses that operate between the airport and the city centre. Climb off at the city centre bus station which is opposite the mainline railway station in Guild Street to board a train to Dundee. A bus journey to the centre of Aberdeen takes about 30 minutes in average traffic, longer at peak times. If you are arriving on a late flight, please check the details of the last available bus, especially at the weekends when they are less frequent.
- Take a taxi from the airport, ComCab (<http://www.comcab-aberdeen.co.uk> or +44 (0)1224 353 535) operates a service from the terminal forecourt at Aberdeen Airport or from the ComCab booking office (turn right on leaving the terminal building). All taxi fares are metered. In light traffic, a journey to the city centre takes about 25 minutes and costs approximately £15 to the city centre, while a journey to the nearest railway station, Dyce, costs £6-£7 and takes 5-10 minutes. Fares and journey times will be greater when traffic is heavy. Wheelchair accessible cars are also available, though need to be booked in advance by phone or email supervisor@comcab-aberdeen.co.uk

We would advise that you visit www.firstscotrail.com for further information on train times, fares and destinations prior to your departure (route Dyce/Aberdeen – Edinburgh stops at Dundee).

For passengers driving, using satellite navigation, the airport postcode is AB21 7DU.

From Edinburgh Airport

Edinburgh Airport is 8 miles (12km) west of the city centre. You can get a train to Dundee by either:

- Hopping on the Airlink 100 or N22 Night bus into the city departing from stand 19 on the terminal forecourt, outside the main entrance hall (operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, with a journey time of about 25 minutes). Tickets cost approx £3.50 for a single, £6.00 for a return and can be bought from the airport information desk, on the bus itself or in advance online (<http://www.flybybus.com/buyonline.php>). Climb off at Waverley Bridge, near Princes Street and Edinburgh's main railway station (Waverley) to board a train to Dundee (this stop is on the bus route from airport to city centre).
- Take a taxi from the airport. There are separate taxi ranks for private airport taxis and for the city 'black cabs' outside the east (UK Arrivals) end of the terminal building. A third rank is available for advance-booked taxis on the ground floor of the multi-storey car park, directly opposite the terminal. The average fare to the city centre/railway station is £18, and most of the taxis are wheelchair accessible. For further information on the Edinburgh Airport taxi service call Onward Travel (<http://www.onwardtravel.com>) on +44 (0)131 333 2255. We would advise that you visit www.firstscotrail.com for further information on train times, fares and destinations prior to your departure (route Edinburgh – Aberdeen/Dyce stops at Dundee).

For passengers driving, using satellite navigation, the airport postcode is EH12 9DN.

From Glasgow Airport

Glasgow Airport is about 20 minutes from the city centre and just two minutes from the nearest town, Paisley. You can get a train to Dundee by either:

- Hopping on one of two buses available from the terminal forecourt, the Glasgow Flyer Airport Express (Service 500) from Bus Stop 1 or the Airlink Direct Express (Service 757) from Bus Stop 1a. Climb off at Glasgow's Queen Street Station to board a train to Dundee. Buses run every 10 – 20 minutes during the day and every 30 minutes at weekends (Airlink Direct Express), with a journey time of approximately 25 minutes to Queen Street Station. Ticket costs range from around £2.90 - £4.20 for a single and £5 - £6.50 for a return ticket, depending on bus provider. Buses are fully accessible with free wi-fi internet access provided on the Glasgow Flyer Airport Express.
- Take a taxi from the airport to Glasgow city centre/Queen Street Station, cost is approximately £18 - £20, depending on traffic. The taxi rank is at the front of the terminal building, a short walk from UK Arrivals. Taxi drivers are obliged to meter the entire journey and publish their scale of charges.

We would advise that you visit www.firstscotrail.com for further information on train times, fares and destinations prior to your departure (route Glasgow – Aberdeen/Dyce stops at Dundee).

For passengers driving, using satellite navigation, the airport postcode is PA3 2SW.
